

KADIMA VOICE

October 2017/January 2018

My Experience at Upland Hills Farm

BY JILL ROBINSON

Things have changed a lot since I was a counselor at the farm. There were many more buildings; the animals were spread out along a zigzagging trail, which their own enclosures were placed. The weather was perfect, just to have a t-shirt on, to go for a brisk hike. As we walked along the trail, we got to see pigs, cows, white turkeys, rabbits and horses.

I had a great time watching other people go on the hayride, as I was walking along the trail, enjoying the view with my friend, Janice. Together we went to the farm show and saw all the farm animals. I must have taken a dozen pictures of how serene and beautiful Upland Hills Farm is.

I still remember when it used to be like a summer camp. The kids would do chores first thing in the morning and then roam free to learn all about the animals.

The Lois Zussman Kadima Golf Classic

Monday, July 17, 2017

By Dorothy Harris-Moy

Franklin Hills Country Club.

Linda, Risa and Dorothy were volunteers, they gave out gift bags to the golf players.

It was a beautiful day for the event – Sunny, low 62, high 80.

July Events Were:

By Dorothy Harris-Moy

Southfield Picnic

It was a beautiful sunny day, low 60's high low 80's.

Royal Oak Art Fair

It was a beautiful sunny day, low 60's, high low 80's.

continued on page 2

SINCERITY

BY DAVID RAZNICK

DAY STARTS, CRACK OF DAWN
WHAT TO DO, WHO TO BE
ASTRONAUT OR SHOE SALESMAN

GOD WILL HELP US,
IF ONLY WE TRY
NEW ENDEAVORS

MIND TWISTS AND TURNS,
LIKE PAGES IN A MAGAZINE

FIXED ON A THOUGHT NOT REAL CONSUMED

ANGER ANGER
SELF INFLICTED

ASK A QUESTION
GET AN ANSWER

WHY, WHY?
NO REPLY FORTHCOMING

ILLUSIONS ALL OF US
TO REALITY ENVISIONED
PARITY BETWEEN US

WHERE ARE YOU NOW
WHY DID YOU LEAVE
NOT FAIR, SORRY
NEVER ENOUGH TIME, NO PATIENCE BEAUTIFUL FACE, FILLED WITH LOVE AND HOPE MISSED DEEPLY

TREES LOSING LEAVES
ONE AT A TIME
RED AND YELLOW
PASSES THE TIME

SING ME A SONG
THAT'S SHORT AND SWEET
LIKE A POEM UNDER A MATTRESS FOR NO ONE TO SEE

CLOTHES THAT NO LONGER FIT
SHOES THAT WEAR DOWN
AGAINST THE STRENGTH OF THE EARTH'S GROUND

ANGELS IN THE HEAVEN'S
SING SWEET SONGS
OF CONTEMPLATION AND LONELINESS
ALL AROUND
DESPAIR AND ANGUISH ON THE FACE OF A CLOWN

BIG RED NOSE, THAT BEEPS WHEN YOU
SQUEEZE
A SONG OF LAUGHTER A SONG OF PAIN
WEARY WITHOUT UNDERSTANDING
CHOICES ONLY I'VE MADE

TIRED, FOREVER TIRED
DREAD WITHOUT END, FEAR WITHOUT BOUNDARIES
ENCOMPASSES THE UNIVERSE NEVER ENDING
INFINITY INFINITY UNDEFINED
KNOWING ONLY A BEGINNING IN MAN MADE TIME

Royal Oak's Lost Treasure Mountain Mini Golf.

By Dorothy Harris-Moy

Golfing was a blast! The weather was nice, warm and sunny. As we arrived at the golf course everyone split up into smaller groups to play golf, I really liked it. The golf course had little ponds around it so I had to be careful when I hit the ball so that it wouldn't fall into the hazard. Overall, I feel that I did pretty good in terms of score.

Afterwards, we all enjoyed a nice lunch of pizza and pop. I hope we can come back next year, this was an amazing experience.

Horoscope

Aries

Like much of last year, 2018 is about overcoming obstacles, problem solving, learning patience (a very difficult lesson for you who want everything yesterday) and arriving at goals through evolutionary processes rather than all at once.

Taurus

Like last year, Saturn in your 3rd House is forcing mental and intellectual development. You will narrow your intellectual interests and delve deeper into fewer subjects. Learning will be slower but more thorough. Your mind is an amazing instrument but it needs tempering these days.

Gemini

Like late last year, you're in a period of financial reorganisation and retrenchment. There is a need to manage what you have in a better way. A need to get financially healthier and more rational. A need to be neither a big spender nor a little spender but a proportional and balanced spender.

Cancer

Like last year, this is a year for managing your energy and activities better. For being more serious and for being a long range, strategic thinker when it comes to yourself and your goals.

Leo

After going through 2016 and 2017, this year is a breeze. Almost all of the long-term planets have moved from their stressful alignment with you. Health and overall vitality are good.

Libra

Last year, many of you were trying to make your work more enjoyable. Many of you made good progress. This urge and trend will continue in the year ahead and the aspects look good for it. The idea seems to be to make work like play and play like work.

Virgo

Last year was a year of prosperity and the good life. It was a year of sensual pleasure and delight, of high optimism and of expansion of your horizons. This trend continues in the year ahead. Self-esteem and self-confidence were wonderful last year and will be wonderful in the year ahead too.

Scorpio

Last year was a strong career and social year. This trend will continue. The social expansion is in the area of friendships and seems very happy. Later in the year, after September 25th, spirituality will become much more important and happy. This will have important and subtle financial benefits as well. More on this later on.

Sagittarius

For many years now you've been undergoing a deep process of personal transformation. You've been giving birth to the ideal you, the person you want to be. Transformation is not a pretty process, it is not color coordinated, or neat but the end result is beautiful. There are many dangers, crises and upheavals involved with this and you've been experiencing them all.

Capricorn

Religion, philosophy, higher education and foreign travel were important (and happy) interests last year and this trend will continue in the year ahead but after September 25th there is a renewed interest in career and social status. Career will start going great guns during that period.

Aquarius

Last year, children and creativity were very important you but now you are in a work year, a more serious period but, have no fear, when Jupiter moves into Libra after September 25th you will have plenty of opportunities to enjoy life and the ability to do so properly.

Pisces

Last year was a banner love and social year, and the trend continues for most of the year ahead. Marriage, significant relationships and new friendships are happening. Business partnership is also happening. This is a year for paying off your debts, cutting expenses and getting financially healthier.

continued on page 4

Recipes

Honey Glazed Baked Carrots

By Risa Davis

This is a modified recipe received which I received from Molisia in the Activity Center. After giving our house fresh carrots from the Kadima Garden, she kindly went online for an appropriate recipe to go with them. The carrots were orange, white and purple on the outside but orange on the inside. Next time we don't have this organic harvest, I want to substitute baby carrots, since they might cook faster than regular carrots which have to be peeled and cut in halves or quarters.

Ingredients:

1 bag baby carrots
Honey
Cumin
Cinnamon
Salt
Pepper
Nutmeg (optional)
Olive oil

In a 9 x11 casserole dish, lay down carrots after being seasoned well (liberally) and saturated with a couple of tablespoons of the olive oil (enough to cover all the carrots) and stand slightly in the bottom of the dish. Leave them to bake for about 25 minutes in a preheated 425° oven.

Kadima, My Conclusive Interests, Overall Attendance and Past Pretenses.

I would like to start off by saying that over the years with my better judgment, the Kadima Organization has been stern yet inclusive to my life goals. I think altogether, I have not always found it easy to share my opinion with others, but arriving at Kadima eight years ago I have found solidarity in such an easy going, friendly environment.

I still find myself struggling with career-like employment, but as I have been recently appeasing my employment constructively in regards to my disorder, I find working with Eric Adelman, Gwen, Patty L. Cook, Jane, Darrel & the rest of the Kadima staff ever more enjoyable and positive.

Thanks,

Eric Jason Jacobson the 1st

An Excerpt from The Orange Peeler by Gregory Kiewiet

I go to make something to eat. But there's nothing to eat. Cupboards are as bare as that lady's in the nursery rhyme Grandma would sometimes sing when I went over to visit or stay - hoping she'd make me something to eat on account there wasn't nothing at home and Ma wasn't home either. Grandma specialized in the Old World stuff: stuff that fills you up and sticks with you.

"Your Grandpa didn't marry me for my looks, you know: married me for my cooking," says this as I sat on the kitchen table, Grandma moving side to side to check on the meat in the oven, rinse and peel the potatoes, slice and dice veggies, and toss and blend in secret spices. Occasionally turns to check to see if I'm listening.

"Many men tried to woo me because of my cooking: rich, poor, handsome and not-so handsome. Why I chose your Grandpa, I don't know." Shakes her head in befuddlement as she stirs whatever is in the big black metal pot on the stove steam is rising from. "I suppose when he looked at me he made me think I was special. Other men when they looked at me I knew inside they were rubbing their tummies, dreaming of the meals I might make for them. Ha!" Grandma opens the oven. Pokes with a fork the chunk of meat sitting in the pan. "Almost. But not yet." She starts chopping up carrots celery, and onions. "Yes, back in the day your Grandpa was something else. Not what you see now. Not by a long shot! Wore nice clothes . . . said nice things . . . opened doors. Even sang me songs." She tosses in the cut-ups into the filter. Rinses with water.

"Then - when he knew he had me - bammo! It goes down the drain. All down the toilet like big brown . . ." She turns suddenly to open the oven, as if her Grandma-intuitions kicked-in to tell her the roast was ready. Slips on oven mitten. Pulls out the tray with the sizzling roast. Puts it on top of the oven. Turns at me: "Still hungry, my little schweinchen?" I nod yes like she asked if I wanted a million dollars. "Good! Go wake-up your Grandpa. Tell him time to eat. And tell him to make sure his fly is up. Otherwise he can go somewhere else to eat.

Word Search

State Capitals

W K L J W L E A B D O D F X G
J W I B J P U R S K U S B U E
M P L Q S D P L R F K I Q Q R
G H T N O S K C A J M K R R E
N W O T B C Y G L K N Q D B V
I M T G O T N E M A R C A S N
S A I N T P A U L E X X F L E
N D O Q C A R S O N C I T Y D
A I M Z R X F Y C V O N R Y Y
L S N S E N I O M S E D A D E
D O S G N W U J Y R V N Q G M
V N Z L A N E L E H Q G I L C
T S U B M U L O C X X Z C W N
G R D D O H A O M U C H A W X
D V U S R N P Y K C R Z I D F

HELENA
COLUMBUS
MADISON
SACRAMENTO
LANSING
DENVER
DESMOINES
SAINTPAUL
CARSONCITY
JACKSON